

---

Darrin Fresh Water Institute

---

A Research Center of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute

2010 Summer Lecture Series

Rensselaer's Darrin Fresh Water Institute, located on Route 9N in Bolton Landing, and the Historical Society of Bolton are pleased to co-host a series of distinguished presentations on the natural and cultural history of Lake George and the Adirondacks

- July 12 In Stoddard's Footsteps: The Adirondacks Then & Now
Mark Bowie, Adirondack Photographer, Adirondack Photography Institute, Pittsfield, MA
- July 19 History of the Gore Mountain Ski Resort
Don Lewis, Adirondack Ski Patrol, Gore Mountain, Brant Lake, NY
- July 26 Native Clams of Lake George: Their Biology, Importance to the Lake, and Need for Conservation
Dan C. Marelli, Ph.D., Scientific Diving International, Tallahassee, FL and Visiting Researcher, DFWI
- August 2 Algal Blooms in Lake George: An Indication that Lake George Water Quality is Changing
Kathleen Bozony, Natural Resource Specialist, The FUND for Lake George
- August 9 Hiking the Adirondacks and Catskills in All Seasons
David and Carol White, Regional Authors, Catskill 3500 Club and Executive Committee of the Adirondack Forty-Sixers (2003-2007), Clinton, NY
- August 16 The Story of Katrina Trask: Her Fascinating Life and Lake George Legacy
Betty Spinelli, Diamond Point, Lake George, NY

Programs are on Monday evenings beginning at 7:30 PM. The public is cordially invited free of charge. Funding for this series is provided by generous gifts from The Knapp Fund and numerous individuals. For more information visit our website www.dfwri.org or phone 518-644-3541.